

I listen to Air1 every day and find it to be the best way to start my day. If I did not have Air1 and the type of music and positive influence that it presents my day would be depressing. My Children love it and listen to it all the time. It is very important to all communities to have this kind of positive influence in all of our lives.